There are signs of pent-up demand booming leading to higher print in GDP, higher consumption numbers and therefore reflation trade as well, says Manish Singh, Chief Investment Officer, Crossbridge Capital LLP.

Read full article from The Economic Times

Crossbridge Capital CIO Manish Singh expects the pound this year to hold at its current level against the dollar (around $1.3626 at the time of writing) or head to $1.40.

Watch the Interview on CNBC

“For me, it is going to be a sideways market from here until the US election. I do not see any directional trend in the market for next three weeks at least,” says the CIO of Crossbridge Capital

Read full article from The Economic Times

But I believe Trump’s second term is going to be very radical, says Manish Singh, Chief Investment Officer, Crossbridge Capital LLP.

Read full article from The Economic Times

India can’t afford another Covid lockdown, say the CIO at Crossbridge Capital

Read full article from The Economic Times

© 2026 Crossbridge Capital. All rights reserved.
This material is provided for informational purposes only and does not constitute investment advice.