

27th February 2012

Manish Singh is named as a 2012 PAM Top 40 Under 40

Crossbridge Capital is proud to announce that Manish Singh, Director and Head of Investment Services, is named as one of the 2012 PAM Top 40 Under 40. The awards recognise the rising stars of the private client wealth management world in the UK and UK offshore and are highly regarded among the private client sector.

Manish Singh joined Crossbridge Capital in January 2011 from Société General Private Banking (SGPB) Hambros Bank Ltd where he was Investment Director and managed over $400m in bespoke and advisory portfolios. He is now responsible in overseeing Crossbridge Capital's Investment Services, which include discretionary and advisory portfolios for HNW and UHNW clients.

Commenting on his achievement, Group CEO Tarek Khlaf said: "The PAM Top 40 Under 40 is a great way of recognising talent in the wealth sector and rewarding outstanding individuals for their hard work. We are all very proud of Manish and continue to encourage and support his efforts at Crossbridge Capital."

-ENDS-

About Crossbridge Capital:

Crossbridge Capital was launched in 2008 with a vision to create an independent, specialist investment firm that would deliver first-class solutions across wealth management and merchant banking. Today, Crossbridge Capital employs over 30 professionals and has considerable client assets under supervision. Crossbridge Capital combines the innovation and boldness of a boutique operation with the highest standards and professionalism of an institutional firm.

More information can be found at www.crossbridgecapital.com